Pending before the Court is the Consent Motion to Stay [# 18]. Previously, the Court stayed these proceedings for a period of 180 days. The Government now moves to continue the stay of these proceedings pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(g)(1) for 90 days. Claimants consent to staying these proceedings for the additional time period.

Upon a review of the record and relevant legal authority, and for the reasons stated in the Court's prior Orders, the Court GRANTS the motion [# 18] and STAYS these proceedings for an additional period of 90 days. After the expiration of 90 days, the stay shall automatically dissolve unless the Government or Claimant can show by motion (accompanied by a status report) reasons why the stay should not be lifted.
